MEET THE GENERATION THAT ANSWERED THE CALL

ALAN SHAPIRO
U.S. ARMY AIR FORCES C-47 PILOT AGE: 101

THEY WERE ONCE YOUR STUDENTS' AGE. NOW THEY ARE LIVING HISTORY.

WALTER TRAVIS
U.S. MARINE CORPS AGE: 102

ROBERTA "RANDY" TIDMORE
ROSIE THE RIVETER/U.S. MARINE CORPS AGE: 104

BILL DILLON
U.S. NAVY/SUBMARINER AGE: 101

Through intimate firsthand accounts, students experience World War II through the men and women who lived it. They'll meet veterans from across America's Armed Forces and hear personal stories of courage, sacrifice, faith, friendship and service.

17, 18, 19 YEARS OLD
AND SUDDENTLY, HISTORY WAS THEIRS TO MAKE

Seeing these veterans as young men and women helps students understand that history happened to real people - not much older than themselves. The cost of protecting freedom becomes real when someone your own age paid that price.

AMERICA'S STORY CONTINUES
